An Open Letter To My Unborn Niece Or Nephew You're not even born yet and you're already a light in so many people's lives. by Audrey Camino-Jara Southern Connecticut State University Jul 18, 2017
A Letter to My Unborn Niece/Nephew Dear Baby, I know the parents are supposed to be the ones writing the letters. I know that I live five hours away from you and that we might not see much of each other and so you might find this note a little odd when you're older. But your arrival into this world has had me thinking about a lot of things ...

A Letter to My Unborn Niece or Nephew Hey kiddo. I won't get to meet you for another month or so. I don't even know if you're a boy or a girl yet! But over the past several months, I've been bursting to tell you everything I've learned about life, so you never have to worry about learning it the hard way.
