— Zia Mody Founding Partner, AZB & Partners Since its first edition in 1956, Ramaiya and company law have been inseparable in the minds of Indian corporate lawyers. Ramaiya's Guide to the Companies Act has remained the most admired volume – perhaps the most cited work in Indian company courts and tribunals. Ramaiya's Guide to the Companies Act conforms to the high standards of accuracy and thoroughness that have made the work a classic in its field. The logical arrangement and lucid exposition of this very digressive area of law have been preserved by the editors. Practitioners too will continue to find the work invaluable.
